Hi Charles,

I was just not aware of this, and I look forward to talking to Rob to understand what he is planning to do. We should also inform Michael Hiscock.

Thanks,
Regan

Hi, Rob

Quick update. I was talking with Regan at the end of the session today.

When I first broached the idea of you taking over the EPANET side of the web site you indicated you were interested but were clear you'd need to get permission. The last couple of times you and I talked, it sounded to me like you were clear to go and I assumed that all matters admin were in line. From Regan, just now, it sounds like you are still working permissions at that end. If I misunderstood enthusiasm for a green light, I apologize. When you talk with Regan and can confirm your availability, please let me know. I'm still hoping to set up a conf call next week.

regards,
Charles
